

Waterfront Toronto Board of Directors

Mayor David Miller and Toronto City Council are looking for qualified people to serve on the Board of Directors of Waterfront Toronto. As one of four citizen members Toronto appoints to the thirteen-member Board, you will apply your knowledge, skills and experience to draw private-sector investment and achieve significant environmental improvements, social and public realm benefits and economic activity through revitalization of the Toronto waterfront.

Waterfront Toronto is an independent without share capital corporation comprised of the Government of Canada, the Province of Ontario, and the City of Toronto as partners. Each partner has committed $500 million to the initiative. Waterfront Toronto's mandate is to lead and oversee Toronto waterfront revitalization activities in a designated area from Coxwell Avenue to Dowling Avenue.

Citizens appointed to the Waterfront Toronto Board will live in Toronto, understand public process, have leadership experience in one or more of urban planning and development, brownfield remediation, economic development, development financing, human resources, successful implementation of complex business strategies and/or comprehensive city building initiatives, and have experience as a director in the public or private sectors.

The City encourages applications from candidates reflecting Toronto's diverse population.

For information concerning the appointments process and a copy of the application form, please visit the City of Toronto's website at <http://www.toronto.ca/public-appointments/index.htm>.

Please apply online directly at
